Collections

March 31: Tisbury £169.24, Wardour £107.30, Envelopes £95.00, plus Standing Orders and Gift Aid, (Wardour second is banked direct by Chapel Trustees). Thank you, all who give. CAFOD Family Fast Day (late) £95.00.

A rare opportunity: Wardour Chapel (SP3 6RH) will be open to visitors on Easter Saturday April 27th between 10.00 and noon. The chapel is usually only open for regular services or to previously booked groups. Visitors will want to make a donation towards its restoration on entering. NB Easter Saturday is the SATURDAY AFTER EASTER in spite of what secular diaries tell you.

The Crypt may be possible to view for a further donation. As the crypt is private, this is a very rare opportunity. Please note: it is accessed by steep stairs with few handholds - a steward may refuse access to anyone thought to be at risk.

Canon Michael FitzPatrick (our area dean) celebrates his 50th anniversary of ordination, Friday 7 June @ 7.00 pm. Salisbury Cathedral has generously been offered for use as no Catholic Church is large enough for the numbers expected. The Bishop of Salisbury (!) has expressed his wish to attend. The Bishop of Clifton and umpteen clergy will be there - probably only the second Catholic Mass in the Cathedral since the Reformation! Note the date and try to be there by 6.30 p.m... a very special occasion. We have booked Tisbus to take us from Wardour school car park at 5.15 p.m. or Tisbury Square at 5.30 p.m. Sign the list in either church porch and give Fr Robert £10.00 for the fare. Refreshments after in the Cloisters. Back in Tisbury around 9 p.m.

Thank you if you supported the Coffee Morning and Cake Sale etc in aid of the Apostleship of the Sea, Tisbury Parish Room, on Saturday 23 March. (julianderson@btinternet.com).

Total: c£260.00. Thanks to Julia, Tyrone and Teresa.
