A rare opportunity: Wardour Chapel (SP3 6RH) will be open to visitors on Easter Saturday April 27th between 10.00 and noon. The chapel is usually only open for regular services or to previously booked groups. Visitors will want to make a donation towards its restoration on entering.

The Crypt may be possible to view for a further donation. As the crypt is private, this is a very rare opportunity. Please note: it is accessed by steep stairs with few handholds - a steward may refuse access to anyone thought to present a risk.

Canon Michael FitzPatrick (our area dean) celebrates his 50th anniversary of ordination, Friday 7 June @ 7.00 pm. Salisbury Cathedral has generously been offered for use as no Catholic Church is large enough for the numbers expected. The Bishop of Salisbury (!) has expressed his wish to attend. The Bishop of Clifton and umpteen clergy will be there - probably only the second Catholic Mass in the Cathedral since the Reformation! Note the date and try to be there, too.. a very special occasion

Lent arrangements:

Lent lunches: March 13, 20, 27, April 3, 10 between noon and 2 pm. Donations will support the work of Alabaré.

We need Catholic volunteers to provide soup and bread on April 3 and 10 - sign notice in Sacred Heart porch.

Deanery Penitential service with the Bishop and assorted priests: St Osmund's, Exeter St, Salisbury: 7 p.m. Thursday 21 March

Coffee Morning and Cake Sale etc in aid of the Apostleship of the SEa, Tisbury Parish Room, Saturday 23 March. Please support. Offers of cakes particularly welcome.
